Ivan Kolenko work as ICT coordinator at Poslovno-komercialna šola in Celje, Slovenia. He has been active in computer education program since 1996 as an on-service teacher trainer. In school where he is employed, he leads and participates in different projects in the field of introducing information and communication technology in Science teaching.