BIOGRAPHY

Goran Kapić has worked for over three years as a sales manager at CS Computer Systems, Zagreb, a leading system integrator of security solutions, Aside from designing and implementing prominent security solutions on the Croatian market, especially for complex enterprise infrastructures, as a security manager of CS he has led a first successful Croatian BS7700 information security implementation in May of 2005. He has held several IT security-related seminars for CS' customers, as well as at the Det Norske Veritas specialized security seminars.